

ANISHINABEK NATION 7TH GENERATION CHARITY

GRANT APPLICATION INFORMATION

Purpose:

As the official charitable fundraising arm of the Anishinabek Nation, the Anishinabek Nation 7th Generation Charity (AN7GC) is committed to improving the quality of life of Anishinabek Nation Citizens where no other source of funding exists. The funds available for disbursement are obtained through the generosity and support of helping sponsors, donors, and the fundraising initiatives and events hosted by the AN7GC. The AN7GC is dedicated to helping Anishinabek citizens in their time of crises due to unforeseen occurrences in the eligible areas listed below.

Eligibility:

Who we will fund:

- Registered status members of the 39 First Nations of the Anishinabek Nation
- Groups and organizations benefitting individuals or groups of one or more of the 39 First Nations of the Anishinabek Nation

Funded Sectors:

The sectors funded by the AN7GC include:

Health:

From emotional and mental, to physical and spiritual well being, the AN7GC provides support for initiatives that advance healthy lifestyles including health promotion, awareness and education, and for individuals' with specific health requirements, which are not covered through other funding or health benefits.

Culture:

The AN7GC supports initiatives that work toward the revitalization and preservation of Anishinabek culture and history. Some of the supported initiatives include but are not limited to: community events, pow-wows, story-telling, arts and crafts workshops, and cultural and language teachings.

Education:

The AN7GC supports the advancement and enhancement of education initiatives for Anishinabek citizens. We support educational aspirations of Anishinabek students through annual scholarships awarded for academic excellence. (Note: for annual scholarship application, please visit www.an7gc.ca/evening-of-excellence.asp).

Social:

The AN7GC supports the Anishinabek in efforts to eliminate social issues and achieve community stability by means of programs and services that bring awareness of social issues such as poverty, ill health, education disadvantages and abuses of various sorts.

Youth:

The AN7GC supports skills development and empowerment initiatives for our Anishinabek youth that strengthen their minds, bodies, and health through various sports and recreational activities.

Elders:

The AN7GC supports initiatives that foster the well-being of our Elders and that promote their cultural teachings in order to keep the core of Anishinabek culture alive. We recognize them as the holders of traditional and cultural values, language and knowledge; thus, supporting them in their teachings of the ways, ceremonies, and language of our people.

Emergency and Disaster Relief:

The AN7GC supports Anishinabek communities and citizens in emergency situations or who are victims of disaster when no other funding exists.
